

Potential route - under consideration for new transmission line

Multiple routes are being studied for the addition of a single new high voltage transmission line. Shaded areas are being reviewed as possible route options. However, areas outside of the shaded areas should not be considered exempt from further analysis.

Arcadia